Distortion of probability models

UNIVERSITY OF WEST BOHEMIA
NEUROINFORMATICS Research Group

The proposed paper deals with one of possible methods for modelling the realtion of two probability model at distribution functions level. The essence of the used concept is a distortion of the distribution function. Some transformation effects of the distribution fuction of distortion functions are derived in this contribution.

01.02.2005   Bratislava