

JERPA - integration of signal processing method

JEŽEK, P., MOUŽEK, R. JERPA - integration of signal processing method. 2010.

Jerpa is a desktop application, allowing the run methods for signal procesing. The program provides a graphical interface for signals visualization, execute methods, work with projects. Methods for processing in the system can be added as plug-ins.